Politics is what we do in place of guns.

- Unknown

One of the penalties of refusing to participate in politics is that you end up being governed by your inferiors.

- Plato

The first principle is that you must not fool yourself — and you are the easiest person to fool.

- Richard Feynman

Rich and poor alike are brainwashed from birth. The rich are taught to disregard the poor, while the poor are taught to disregard their true interests.

- Yuval Noah Harari

The question in society is not whether elites are going to rule, it is always which elites are going to rule.

- George F. Will

Unified elites dominate the disorderly masses . . . much of the elite's effort focuses on ensuring that the people at the bottom never learn to cooperate.

- Yuval Noah Harari

It is difficult to get a man to understand something when his salary depends on him not understanding it.

- Upton Sinclair

Historically, the Republican Party has represented the interests of the wealthy – the privileged. The Democratic Party has represented the interests of the other classes – those less privileged. The design of Republican operatives is to convince those within the other classes that the Republican Party will best represent their interest.
